A basic, essential series for every high-school library (and also a No. 1 acquisition for administrators' desk.)

INOR GROUP GUIDANCE SERIES

By Richard D. Allen

Asst. Supt. of Schools in Charge of Guidance, Providence, R.I.

Expert Consultant on Guidance, U. S. Office of Education

Former President of the National Vocational Guidance Assn.

In high schools where classroom teachers are taking a larger and larger part in the total guidance program, every member of the faculty, as well as the administrator and guidance director, can improve his guidance work by a study of the INOR GROUP GUIDANCE SERIES. Give your teachers an opportunity to get a better grounding in guidance by placing one or more sets of these books in the school library. The INOR GROUP GUIDANCE SERIES contains the experience and the work of many guidance experts. It not only gives teachers a thorough understanding of guidance organization and methods, but gives them in addition the materials of instruction for a modern group guidance program. Each of the books is valuable for constant reference by administrators and guidance directors. Order this Series on 30-day approval today—or write for folder.
